Declare Free Speech Is Denied There is a campaign now on to or-ganize all steel workers in the face of what union leaders say are attempts at suppression of free speech and free assembly.

Through a special committee from the American Federation of Labor an effort is being made to obtain 5,000 signatures to the following pledge:

"We, the undersigned, believing in the Constitution of the United States and believing that our liberties are being trampled upon by the suppression of free speech and free assembly in towns in the Pittsburgh district, do hereby pledge ourselves to stand ready to attend any meeting for the enforcement of free speech and free assembly to be arranged by the national committee for organizing iron and steel workers. We ing iron and steel workers. We further pledge ourselves to urge all members of organized labor to at-members of organized labor to attend these meetings called by the national committee."

When 5,000 pledges have been obtained, the labor leaders say, the first meeting will be called, probably in McKeesport, where Mayor George H. Lysle has refused organizers of the federation permission to hold a meeting.

Sixty-seven unions affiliated with the federation are cooperating in many movements to obtain higher wages, reduction of hours and improved conditions.

BOSTON, March 26.—Charles G.
Wood, Commissioner of the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration, announced to-night that he had notified representatives of the Lawrence textile mills and of the striking operatives to appear at an investigation to be held in the City Hall at Lawrence on Monday afternoon, March 31.

"Both sides," said Mr. Wood, "will be heard and interrogated. The cause of the strike and the parties responsible or blameworthy for its existence and continuance will be ascertained."
He said the purpose of the investigation was "to clear the way for the accomplishment of a good understanding."

Americanization of Foreigners

SYRACUSE, March 26.—Readjustment problems of industry were discussed by the Associated Manufacturers and Merchants of New York State at the opening session of their annual meeting here to-day. More than 500 representatives of industry and commerce were present. A banquet was held to-night with Abram I. Elkus, chairman of the State Reconstruction Commission, as speaker. He discussed the readjustment of industrial relations.

E. J. Barcalo, of Buffalo, former president of the association, speaking at the business session, declared: "The industrial problem to-day demands and must have the very best thought of every person in or connected with industry. If all, instead of a few, as in the past, he said, put honest heads together, favorable results would follow. Senator Frederick W. Davenport, chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee, spoke on health insurance.
